

CHURCH OF SAN FELIPE de NERI, built in 1706 at Albuquerque, New Mexico. With adobe walls more than five feet thick, this church was designed to serve also as a place of safe refuge from Indian raiders. Visitors are welcome.

Kodachrome by Jack Taylor

Dextone Made Direct from Kodachrome and Ansco Color By Dextet Press, Pearl River, N. Y.

Pub. by Old Trail News Agency, Santa Fe, New Mexico K-216-D-5
48436

1-
BBB

PLACE

STAMP
HERE

POST CARD

Address